A New Way to Play Ar

Win up to $5,000 right off the bat

Using the edge of a coin, gently rub all the nine baseball spots on the top edge of the ticket. Add up your total score for all nine innings.

- Now rub off the spot marked "Their Score." If your total score beats "Their Score," you win the game. (If you have a tie, see the "Extra Innings" Section.)
- To find out what cash prize you have won, rub the baseball spot marked "Prize."
- Instant Baseball Game prizes are: $5,000, $500, $50, $20, $5 or $2.

Extra Innings Prize

A Lottery Baseball Cap

After rubbing all the baseball spots, if your total score does not beat "Their Score" and results in a tie, you have won the "Extra Innings" prize of a Lottery baseball cap or $2, your choice. The odds of winning a baseball cap are 1:34.

Claim your cap by mailing your ticket and your return address to:

Vermont Lottery Baseball Cap
State Office Building
Montpelier, VT 05602

Do not mail to any other other address.

Second Chance Drawing

Red Sox or Expos Baseball Tickets

When you collect 5 non-winning Baseball tickets, mail them to the Lottery (Second Chance Drawing, Vermont Lottery, P.O. Box 308, Montpelier, VT 05602). Be sure to print legibly your name, address and telephone number on the back of each ticket. Do not use this address for any other Lottery related mail. Each Friday the Lottery randomly will draw the winners to be awarded Red Sox or Expos tickets for home games scheduled 10 days in advance of the drawing. Actual number of weekly winners will vary with home game schedules.

Each winner will receive 4 tickets and a $25 check to help defray expenses.

Winner will receive tickets to either Red Sox or Expos home game at option of the Lottery in order of the random drawing. There is no choice of game date. No rain checks. Entries eligible for only one drawing. New drawing each Friday.

How to Claim Cash Prizes

First, fill out the back of your ticket. Protect yourself against loss. If you lose a winning unsigned ticket, it can be claimed by anyone. Winners of $50 or less may collect their prizes instantly from any licensed sales agent. Winners of $5,000 or $500 must file a claim at a Lottery Claim Center. State Liquor Stores and most agency stores are designated as claim centers. You will be asked to present your winning ticket and fill out a claim form. You will receive a receipt in return. After your ticket has been verified at Lottery Headquarters as a winning ticket, a check will be mailed to you.

Lottery Rules

Minors (under 18 years of age) are not permitted to buy tickets but may win prizes.

All Instant Baseball Game tickets, transactions and winners are subject to Vermont Lottery rules and regulations and State Law. Ticket is void if stolen, unissued, mutilated, illegible, altered in any way, defective, printed or produced in error or incomplete; or void as otherwise stated on the back of the ticket. Only the designated prize amounts are valid on ticket. Not responsible for lost or stolen tickets.

All $20 winning tickets that fail to include the legible name and address of the entrant will be automatically disqualified from participating in the Grand Prize Drawing.

All winning tickets are subject to validation by the Lottery Office. All prizes must be claimed within one year of announced end of game.

The Second Chance Drawing is solely the responsibility of the Vermont Lottery and neither Major League Baseball, the Boston Red Sox or the Montreal Expos participated in its development nor endorse its promotion.

REMEMBER...Net Lottery proceeds benefit the people of Vermont as an added source of revenue that does not need otherwise to be raised by taxes...AND IT IS FUN, TOO.
